

SO YOU WANT TO WRITE A CHILDREN'S BOOK

Have you dreamed of writing for kids? Start the journey with award-winning author Kelly Starling Lyons in a workshop designed to introduce you to the field.

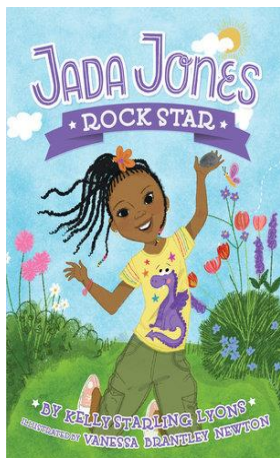

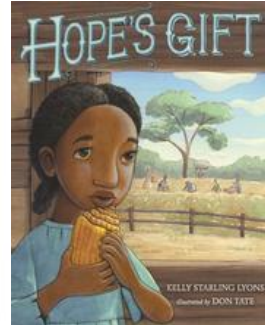

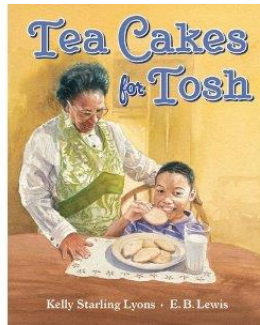

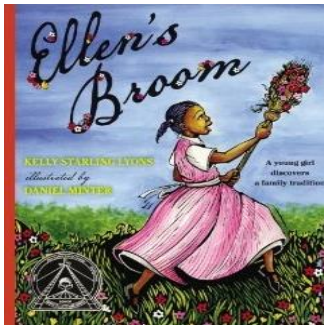

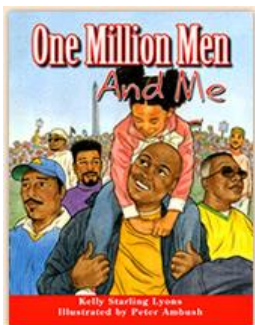

- Get a basic understanding of children's book genres
- Mine your life for story ideas
- Gain insight into the business of children's book writing
- Learn about resources and tools of the trade

Date: Saturday, September 9, 10 a.m.-2:30 p.m.

Place: Chesterbrook Academy, Strickland Road

Cost: $100

Write email at kellystarlinglyons dot com for info.

"If there is a book you want to read but it hasn't been written yet, then you must write it."

– Maya Angelou

"Work at your craft, write daily, and follow your dreams because dreams do come true."

– Christopher Paul Curtis

"You have to write the book that wants to be written. And if the book will be too difficult for grown-ups, then you write it for children."

– Madeleine L'Engle

